

Tanesha Barnes

Frontend Web Developer

ABOUT ME

Full stack web developer based in Albany, NY, but open to relocate for the right opportunity.

I am passionate about learning new things and creating inclusive and responsive designs. When not coding I enjoy listening to music, audiobooks and podcasts while going on one of my daily walks or working on jigsaw puzzle.

I am currently enrolled in CanCode Commuties/SUNY Adirondack Python for Data Analytics bootcamp.

Technologies I Have Experience With:

- HTML
- CSS
- JavaScript
- Git/Github
- VS Code
- Bootstrap
- Figma
- Sass
- Node.js
- JQuery
